Day 2: Barcelona – Park Gell and Sagrada Familia

After breakfast, you will proceed to Park Gell in Barcelona. Contemplate this architectural wonder created by Antoni Gaud as we walk through it accompanied by an expert guide. Admire the multicolored staircase dragon, with its colorful mosaic pottery known as "trencads"; and look at the large central terrace, surrounded by a series of benches that form a great sea serpent. Going down to the lower part of the terrace you will find the vaulted courtyard, with 86 Doric columns in the shape of enormous tree trunks. As you walk along this path you can see how Gaud masterfully integrated architecture into nature. Continue the tour to another of the great wonders of Gaud, the Sagrada Familia, and marvel at this exceptional modernist building that has already become a symbol of the city. Contemplate its glorious facade, which has provoked all kinds of opinions since the architect began his project. Once inside, you can see impossible shapes and textures that offer a space of illusion and fantasy in which you will be absorbed. Evening will be free at leisure. Overnight at hotel.
