Ranthambore - Jaipur (185 Kms / 03.30 hrs)

After breakfast check out from hotel and drive to Jaipur- the capital city of Rajasthan, lies on the edge of the Thar Desert, surrounded by the Aravali hills. One of the earliest planned cities in India, Jaipur was founded in 1727 by Sawai Jai Singh-II of the ruling Rajput dynasty as his new capital. It's remarkably well-preserved heritage; which includes hilltop forts, bustling old markets, and lovely palaces. The vibrant capital of Rajasthan is popularly known as 'The Pink City' for the color of the buildings in its wonderful old city.Upon rival, check into the hotel and in the afternoon get ready to explore the city visiting City Palace & Museum, located in the old part of the city, the City Palace encloses several palaces, courtyards and gardens. The royal family continues to live in a part of the palace, and this impressive complex still exudes a regal aura. Also houses Maharaja Sawai Man Singh II Museum, which has a good collection of royal costumes, weapons, miniature paintings, manuscripts and sculptures. Then visit Jantar Mantar, this astronomical observatory was built by Jai Singh II in the 18th century. It is the largest and the best preserved of the five he built across the country. It contains 14 structures or astronomical instruments, each with a specific function: either to measure time, track solar and lunar eclipses and the movement of stars and planets. Evening is at your leisure and stay overnight at Hotel.
